Assalammualaikum. Wr.Wb.

One of concrete implementation of Profil Pelajar Pancasila is to conduct an activity that ignite the values of Profil Pelajar Pancasila characters. Thus, these English short stories project of grade X has shown us of those values.

First, the teamwork values. In the making of these short stories both students and teacher worked hand in hand. The students were given constructive feedback not only from other students but also from the teacher to revise their writing.

Secondly, the creativity and the Independence value. Through this project, the creativity of the students was challenged as they were asked to explore more on what to write based on the given topic and make sure that their writing was not a plagiarised one. Moreover, students' independency was fostered in the process of finishing of these short stories as each of them needed to do their part on their team by themselves first.

Lastly, These English short stories project is one of ways to escalate the students' global knowledge. The students here were given chances to find many various sources from around the world through the internet and interviews. With the guide from the English teacher, Ms. Molly, the students were also facilitated on how to adapt the sources they had read to their writing.

Please enjoy our students' masterpiece.

FOREWORD

Assalammualaikum. Wr.Wb.

I'd like to send an enormous gratitude to God the Almighty for the support and the ease to all students to finish this great project. Moreover, I'd like to thank bu Tjahyani, M.Pd. as the principal of SMAN 30 Jakarta who always gives her utmost support to any of the teacher-students projects conducted. Lastly, the big thanks go to all students who had tried their best to meet all feedbacks I had given to them to ensure that these short stories project finally finished by the deadline.

This book is an epitome of grade X students' hard work in the topics of Explanation text and Conjunction (Cause-effect and Concession). Initiating this project was once I thought a mission impossible as the process of creating the short stories was not an instant process. Every article the students made was guided thoroughly. They were given chances to discuss with their team members, present the progress in front of the class, receive feedbacks not only from me as the teacher but also from their colleagues, and also revise their work. The paramount goal of this activity is to unleash the students' true potential especially fostering their skills on writing, creativity, and teamwork. Hence, it took a semester to finish this great project. Hopefully, the readers can enjoy reading the short stories as much as I do.

June 2023,
Yours sincerely,

Elizabeth became a public doctor at one of the prestigious hospitals. One month ago, Elizabeth failed to help a female patient with a murder victim, caused many people and medical colleagues to doubted her abilities.

And, today, Elizabeth was assigned to help a female patient who was survivor in a plane crash. It was her challenge to prove to everyone and her medical colleagues that she was able to help that woman patient.

Jane faced a middle between death and life. Elizabeth headed to room 105 where the woman patient was treated, accompanied by her nurse, Alice. Elizabeth seemed to start checked Jane unconscious condition, which Alice saw the doctor anxious look on her face and asked, "What about her condition? Is it so bad?" Alice asked. "It's best to have an operation, so that the internal wounds heal." Elizabeth replied. Elizabeth and her medical colleagues performed the surgery.

After performed the operation, Jane condition improved. However, at night, a mysterious human put scopolomine powder in her water. Which, in a dose of 7 milligrams, would cause the victim to turned into a robot human like a zombie. She would obey Her orders. And the victim memory was erased, so that when she woke up, she didn't remember a thing.

At the behest of the human, Jane began her action. She started killed patient next to her. Not only that, she overcame it by committed suicide herself.

Elizabeth, who saw the incident, felt a nervous breakdown. "How can a patient who is not in the optimal state, did that?" Elizabeth asked herself.

Hospital colleagues though that, there's no way Jane committed suicide. They then accused Elizabeth of behind the incident. Because, Elizabeth was the doctor who handled Jane.

WHY SO SERIOUS?

The real killer who saw Elizabeth accused was delighted, because she managed to fought her long-cherished grudge.

The evil that is hidden would surely be revealed. The word that always came to Elizabeth minded, made her felt more challenged to resolve the issue.

She found a bright spot. On checked Jane water, there was powder in it. Then, she went to Fredick (Pharmacist) to analyze the drug.
Elizabeth: Hi, Fred. Can you analyze this powder?
I suspect her as evidence of murder.

Fred: Is this related to Jane?

Elizabeth: Yes, how did you know that?

Fred: I felt suspicious about the incident. Wait, I need about two hours.

Elizabeth: Okay, I'll wait.

from any liability insurer.

eras or weapons are NOT ALLOWED anywhere on the premises (including parking area) and not be returned.

Two hours had passed.

Elizabeth: How did it go, Fred?

Fred: Wow, it's scopolomine powder and it's a very high dose. This powder can cause the victim to be controlled by the perpetrator.

Elizabeth: That's what I thought, Jane was hypnotized with someone. All right, thanks Fred.

Without a doubt, someone entered the high dose powder into the water. She started investigating the culprit, started with CCTV. She found the perpetrator physical condition by characterized a woman, long black hair, nurse clothes, and red heels.

Red heels, identical characteristics of the perpetrator. She thought that the person closed to her liked pink, which is Alice. To prove it, she did a fingerprint test on the glass of water. And, as it turns out, the owner was Alice, her own best friend. Although, Alice was her own best friend, she reported it to the authorities.

While in prison, Elizabeth visited Alice.
Elizabeth: Why did you kill Jane?

Alice: I'm glad, you feel the sense of accused and your reputation is bad. I've been waited for this day to come.

—Flashback.

Elizabeth and Alice were close friends who could not be separated. Elizabeth wanted to become a doctor, while Alice became a nurse.

Every day, Alice is compared to her close friend. Because, Elizabeth is better than herself.
So, she held a grudge against Elizabeth later.

The Writer

A woman had a plane crash, and only she survived.

The woman was taken to the hospital for treatment. After the woman was conscious, the doctor and nurse immediately examined the woman's condition.

Jenny: "Hi Jane, how are you?" Jane: "It's getting better."

Jenny: "I am Jenny, the nurse in this hospital who takes care of you. The doctor diagnosed you with amnesia. Since you don't remember your name, I will give you a nickname."

Jane: "Okay."

Jenny: "Your nickname is Jane. How good is that?" Jane: "I like it."

For a few days, Jane was in the hospital and did not experience anything strange. On that day, Jane felt bored and decided to get some fresh air in the hospital garden because the hospital had allowed Jane to get out of the room. Then, she decided to go down and take the elevator, and while on his way, he met an office boy swept the floor in the hospital.

Office boy: "Good afternoon. Want to use the elevator down?"

Jane: "Yes. I want to get some fresh air. Because I'm bored in the room."

Office boy: "I'm just reminding you, if the elevator door stops on the 13th floor, just close the door immediately."

Jane: "What's wrong? What if someone wants to take the elevator from the 13th floor?"

Office boy: "It's a rule in this hospital like that. I'm just reminding you." Jane ignored the office boy's words because, according to her, the rules were bizarre to hear.

When she was on the elevator, the elevator door opened on the 13th floor. Jane remembered the words of the office boy. Jane tried to close the elevator door. However, the elevator doors would not close. Then, not long after, a woman came into the elevator, and the woman entered the elevator. In the elevator, the woman asked Jane to talk, and that was where the meeting between Jane and the woman started.

Jane: "What floor do you want to go down?"

Jane asked the woman, but there was no response or expression.

After the conversation, Jane felt strange with the woman, and the conversation didn't make sense until there were minor disturbances and severe disturbances that scared her.

After getting some fresh air, Jane returned to her room by taking the elevator. When Jane wanted to take the elevator, Jane found a ring. The ring looked familiar to her. Without thinking, Jane took the ring and put it on her finger.

The next day, Jane did a check-up with the doctor. While the doctor checked Jane's condition, Jane told the doctor that she found a stunning ring.

Jane: "Doctor, yesterday I found a ring. The ring is nice. The ring is like the one I've seen before."

The doctor was surprised when he saw the ring used on Jane's ring finger.

Doctor: "Where did you find the ring? You better throw away the ring. Don't save it, let alone use it like that."

Jane: "Why, doc? I don't want to. It's tough to throw away this ring."

Doctor: "I only suggest throwing away the ring immediately."

After the doctor finished examining Jane's condition, the doctor advised Jane once again to throw away the ring she was using at that time. However, Jane remained in her stance. She did not want to throw away the ring.

Night came, and Jane fell asleep peacefully. In the middle of her sleep, Jane dreamed of a wonderful woman, wearing a pure white dress, arguing with a man with another woman.

in Jane's dream

White dress girl: "Who is he?!" (while pointing at the woman firmly)
"You hugged her?!"

Man: "I can explain everything. You just misunderstood."

White dress girl: "What's the misunderstanding?! You've changed recently. I didn't even know you were in the hospital!"

The boy kept quiet, confused to continue his conversation with his lover. At the same time, the woman next to him was just silent without explaining anything. The woman in the white dress rushed away to leave her lover with the woman.

The woman in the white dress left crying; she went to the ground floor using the elevator. Suddenly the elevator stopped right on the 13th floor. Still, the door of the elevator didn't open, and the lights in the elevator also went out, which made the woman scared. She tried to press the help button on the elevator, but not long after, the elevator fell, and the woman died that night. Jane woke up. She was very surprised by her dream. Jane immediately drank the water with her trembling hands. When it started to feel calm, Jane decided to go to the toilet to urinate. When Jane opened the door, she was surprised by the writing in the mirror.

"Give me back my ring!" the writing was scary because the ink was red like blood. Jane who was scared, immediately ran away, left the toilet and returned to her bed, and tried to sleep again.

The next night, Jane couldn't sleep because she kept thinking about the terror she had yesterday. When she was frightened, she heard someone walking. Suddenly a woman entered her room, wearing a white dress covered in blood. The woman immediately ran and strangled Jane. Jane tried to release the woman's stranglehold and pushed her. When her choke was removed, Jane immediately ran to the elevator on that floor. at that time, the open elevator was about to close. Still, when Jane was halfway into the elevator, the elevator immediately closed and pinned Jane's body until her body was crushed.

A woman in a dark, long-sleeved dress is walking away from the viewer down a narrow dirt path in a dense forest. The trees are tall and thin, with their branches creating a canopy overhead. The lighting is dim and greenish, creating a mysterious and eerie atmosphere. The path is slightly illuminated, leading the eye towards the woman in the distance.

One day, Jane is assigned to research at remote village, coincidentally at the same time, Jane's uncle and aunt have business dealings, that is happen to be in the same city but different area, so they finally decided to go with. Arriving at the airport, wrong Jane's family always carries an old bag always they take it everywhere but every time Jane asked what was in the bag they didn't never answered and they don't allow another person or his own family to hold such bags and until now they have not

Do you know what's in the bag? "What's in the bag uncle?" Ask Jane

"only work equipment, let's go immediately" answered uncle sam briefly.

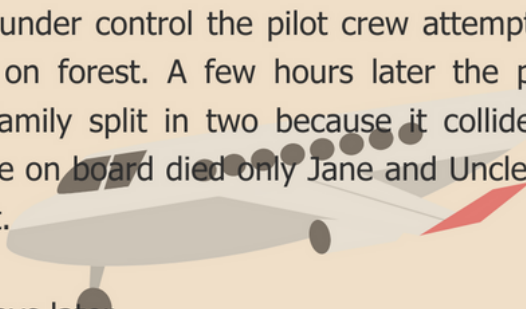

Jane is confused and wonders why His uncle always diverted his questions about what's in the bag a few minutes later jane and uncle and his aunt arrived in a private plane owned his family "Jane until when you served there?" Ask aunt Ruby

"Hmmm maybe about a month, indeed why ?" Jane answered while asking back "Ah it's okay aunt just asking" replied aunt ruby.

A few minutes later....

suddenly the plane belonging to Jane's family experienced turbulence, that is where the pressure changes and drastic airflow velocity. A few minutes later the plane was getting smaller under control the pilot crew attempted an emergency landing on forest. A few hours later the plane belonged to Jane's family split in two because it collided with the trees, everyone on board died only Jane and Uncle Sam survived the accident.

A few days later...

In the morning Jane woke up in the hospital in a condition still lying down and not fully conscious. He has opened his eyes but his memory is still on the accident he had. Jane was confused about what happened to her and why she was lying in the hospital. Jane's condition is still not recovering and she is still asking herself what really happened. Then the nurse saw Jane who had woken up and approached her with breakfast for Jane, then the nurse said

"good morning miss, I brought breakfast for you" Jane who heard the nurse's words immediately asked without looking at the nurse,
"what happened to me? and why did I wake up already here?"

then the nurse replied "you experience accident, you better have breakfast first "replied the nurse. "accident ? what accident? she asked. "You better have breakfast and I'll explain later" replied the nurse then she left Jane who was still confused. Then Jane was forced to eat the breakfast that had been provided.

A few minutes later...

he had finished breakfast and he was waiting for the nurse who had delivered his breakfast earlier to come see him to explain what had happened to him. Jane waited for 1 hour for the nurse but the nurse did not come to her. Finally the nurse went to Jane to check on her. "Finally came, I've been waiting for you to tell me what happened to me?" Ask Jane "You had a plane crash a few days ago, the only survivors are you and a man named Sam but at this time he is still unconscious" the nurse answered clearly.

Jane was surprised to hear the explanation from the nurse

"An accident? Plane crash?" Jane asked confused

"Yes miss, you had a plane crash because your plane experienced turbulence"

"Gosh, why can't I remember anything and now my head hurts so much" "That might be an effect because you just realized, you should rest first" replied the nurse.

"May I know what your name is?"

"Of course miss, my name is Olivia Mayez, you can call me Oliv" replied the nurse.

"Ah well, Sister Oliv" replied Jane

"Okay miss I'm sorry, if you need help please press this button to call me" said the nurse

"Okay, thank you very much Sister Oliv" answered Jane.

Jane, who saw Sister Oliv coming out of her room, lay down on the bed and decided to sleep. The next day arrived, Jane opened her eyes because there was Sister Oliv who had returned to bring Jane breakfast.

"Good morning Jane" greeted Sister Olivia

"Morning, Sister Oliv" greeted Jane who was still not fully conscious.

"I brought breakfast for you Jane, get up and eat this" commanded Sister Oliv.

Jane, who was lying down at first, woke up to change her position to sitting.

"Thank you, Sister Oliv," said Jane to Sister Olivia Jane, who was eating breakfast brought by Sister Oliv, then asked

"Sister Oliv, how is the man's condition?"

"That man was past his critical period, but strangely when he woke up he immediately asked
"where is my bag?" strange isn't it?
replied Sister Olivia confusedly.

"Bag... What bag?"

Jane asked confusedly

"Yes, the bag, the man said his bag was dark brown," replied Sister Oliv Jane, who was daydreaming, was confused, she tried to remember her past memories, not long after that, Jane felt her head hurt very, very badly.

"Ah my head hurts so much?" Jane asked while holding her head "Jane, I'll call the doctor in a moment," replied Sister Olivia, running towards the exit.

Not long after, Sister Oliv came with the doctor who was treating Jane, the doctor immediately examined Jane.
Jane who was already lying down then she winced in pain and asked the doctor.

"Why does my head hurt so bad?" asked Jane

"This is because you are too forced to remember past events.
You better not push yourself too hard to remember all of Jane," answered the doctor loudly

"But I got an image when Sister Oliv talked about the bag, doc," replied Jane.

Jane woke up startled and she realized that it was all a dream. But Jane felt that it was all as real as the description of the accident that happened to Jane. Jane finally changed her position to sit on the bed while continuing to ask questions "What does that dream mean?"

"And who is the man the old woman is referring to?"

"And why did the woman say that the man had killed her" Jane asked herself.

Jane saw the clock on the hospital wall showing 03.00 in the morning, then Jane decided to take a walk in the hospital area while thinking about the meaning of her dream. Jane suddenly wanted to see the man, and finally Jane decided on the men's room.

Arriving at the man's room, he very slowly opened the door to the man's room and then Jane sat beside the man's bed, Jane looked at the man for a long time, Jane wanted to wake him up and ask if he was part of his family? Immediately his request was granted the man opened his eyes and looked at Jane with great astonishment.

"We had a plane crash" the man answered casually.

"Oh yes I want to ask you one more thing, Sister Oliv told me when you realized you immediately looked for a dark brown bag, today I dreamed of meeting a woman whose appearance was very messy and full of blood and I looked around me in that dream lots of debris that has been destroyed and there is a plane head and in my dream, I see a dark brown bag, what is the bag you mean? To my surprise the woman said "man that's evil",

"he killed me and he really wants to make those closest to him suffer" I don't understand what that woman means, do you know?

After hearing Jane tell her about her dream, the man immediately gasped in surprise as his whole body was sweating and shaking

Jane, who saw this, was immediately shocked by his reaction, and Jane spontaneously immediately asked the man a question.

"What is wrong with you? Are you okay?" Jane asked frantically

"Go out!"

Jane was surprised by the man's answer, why did the man send Jane out? Is there something wrong with the question Jane asked earlier?

"GET OUT I SAY! The man ordered with an angry face.

Jane, who got yelled at, headed straight for the exit, Jane was still asking what was wrong? Why is that man so angry?

"Oh, come on," thought Jane

A few minutes later Jane arrived at her inpatient room she decided to rest because she was very tired today.

Morning came

Jane, who had woken up from her sleep, decided to go to the bathroom to clean her body.

The door opened and saw Sister Olivia bringing breakfast to Jane. When Sister Oliv came in, she didn't see Jane on her bed, she suddenly called out Jane's name

"Jane, where are you? Jane?" Call Sister Olivia

Jane heard the voice of Sister Oliv calling her from outside, Jane answered immediately

"I'm in the toilet Sister Oliv!" answered Jane from inside the toilet loudly.

"Okay Jane, I'm here to deliver breakfast to you Jane, and eat it when you're done cleaning, I put the breakfast on the table" commanded Sister Olivia

"Thank you, Sister Oliv, but could you wait there until I finish cleaning? There's something I want to tell you, Sister Olivia," answered Jane.

"But Sister Oliv, after I had that dream, I really wanted to meet the man, finally I met him and entered his room after that I asked him, I told him this too, but what surprised me when he heard what I told him, he immediately shouted telling me to out of the room, from there I experienced an awkwardness, what do you think?" Ask Jane

"Jane, I think that man was just in shock, moreover he just realized from his critical period. So you don't need to think about it too much," replied Sister Olivia soothingly.

Jane didn't answer anything, she just kept quiet like she was thinking of planning something.

"Okay, then I'll excuse myself. If you need immediate assistance, press the button"

Jane just nodded her head.

On the other hand, a man named Sam had just woken up from his sleep, he was still thinking about the story Jane had told him.

"I have to find that bag back soon! I should be able to get it back!" He said with a smirk

"If I have it I can have anything I want! Hahahahahahaha! he said with an evil laugh.

On the other hand, Jane, who was sleeping, dreamed that she was visited by the same woman as in her dream at that time, but the woman's appearance was different from that in her first dream. the woman's appearance was very beautiful and jane felt like she had seen that woman before but where?

in the dream

"We meet again at last" said the woman

"What do you want exactly?" Jane asked "I just wanted to tell you something Jane."

"What something? Why do you recognize me?" Jane asked confused

"That man really wants to master anything Jane" said the woman

"master what do you mean?" answered Jane

"want to control everything that belongs to our family jane" said the woman

"belongs to our family? you mean?"

"Yes, our family belongs to Jane, he is your uncle and my husband at the same time," said the woman

"what? your husband? what really happened and who are you?" asked Jane confusedly

"I'm your aunt Jane, I'm Kelly's Aunt Jane, why did you forget me Jane" said the woman sadly.

suddenly Jane's head hurt so badly she held her head
"Arghhh why does my head hurt so much" Jane whined

"Jane, I beg you to stop all of this, take the bag that is in your uncle, burn it all, Jane," the woman ordered.

Jane, who heard the woman's order, was silent because she couldn't hold her head, which was very, very sore. and finally jane's vision blackened and she fell unconscious.

Jane woke up and she already remembered everything, Jane immediately rushed to the man's room.

A few minutes later Jane immediately opened the door with a bang, but unluckily the man was not in his bed.

"Where did he go? I have to look for him" said Jane

Jane kept looking for him around the hospital but she didn't find the man, Jane decided to rest on the hospital park bench, she suddenly remembered the place in her dream, yes the forest Jane immediately rushed to look for Sister Oliv.

"Sister Oliv, Sister Oliv" Jane called loudly

"what's wrong with you jane? why are you sweating so much?"
asked nurse oliv

"Do you remember where I was found?" she asked "What do you mean? Answered Sister Olivia

"WHERE DOES SISTER OLIV SAY QUICKLY" Jane said loudly
'd-in the Witsman woods forest,' replied Sister Oliv

Jane was silent

"Silent means yes" said Uncle Sam

"Do you know who the skeletons are?" said Uncle Sam, pointing to the contents of the bag

"That is your father, your mother, my wife, and your grandmother," said Uncle Sam

Jane couldn't believe what the man was saying

"WHY ARE YOU DOING THIS? IT'S PART OF YOUR FAMILY AND ME" Jane asked through tears

"Because I want to master everything, Jane. In fact, your aunt and I worked together to control everything, but she died first," said Uncle Sam.

"YOU ARE REALLY EVIL" said Jane

"Now you're the only one left here Jane" he said with an evil smile

Uncle Sam took a knife and slowly approached Jane, Jane saw that she was shocked and tried to back away "what are you doing uncle!?" she said

"I want you to come with them Jane, so that all of this really belongs to me" said Uncle Sam

"Please don't come closer uncle I beg you" begged Jane As if Uncle Sam didn't hear Jane's plea he kept moving closer to Jane

Jane, who stopped because she was blocked by a wooden wall, just gave up because she didn't know what to do. Jane saw her uncle was right in front of her, Jane just closed her eyes because she was very scared.

"I'm ready to meet the others Jane" said Uncle Sam "Pls I beg uncle don't kill me" begged Jane Uncle Sam just smiled. Jane felt the knife that was right in her chest. Jane just cried in fear uncle sam who wanted to stab jane suddenly jane heard gunshots. When he opened his eyes he saw Sister Olivia holding the gun.

Jane immediately hugged Sister Olivia and cried "Jane are you okay Jane?" asked Sister Olivia

"I'm fine, Sister Oliv, thank you for helping me, I'm really scared" Jane answered crying

"Calm down, Jane, the police will be here soon," said Sister Oliv, who calmed Jane in her arms.

not long after the police team arrived at the place of sisters oliv and jane. Uncle Sam's body was immediately taken to the hospital. Jane was also taken to the hospital to treat the wound that was caused by her uncle's knife. To the next day, the day when his uncle was buried and Jane lives quietly now with Sister Olivia who Jane already considers her older sister.

"Come on, Jane, let's go home, it's getting dark," said Sister Oliv

Jane and Sister Oliv decided to return to their respective homes.

THE END.

THE STORY ABOUT THE "PLANE CRASH"

SECRET AGENT

PREFACE

First of all, thanks to Allah SWT because of his bless and grace we can finishing a short story entitle "Secret Agent" on time.

Also thanks to our guiding teacher Ms. Maulidia, we had many difficulties in the process of writing this short story, but with her help we can get through it and finish this assignment.

This story isn't perfect, because we don't have much experience in writing, but we hope this short story can eentertain the readers.

Jakarta, 2023/05/27.

The Writer's

SECRET AGENT

Abigail (Jane) is a special detective hired by the government to solve a case in St. Louis, but on her way, she had a plane crash that took her away to carry out her mission. As a result she fell into a coma for a week.

Richard, who incidentally is a former detective partner from Abigail, has a grudge because Abigail managed to get a position that Richard couldn't get when he was a detective

Richard, who knows about Abigail's (Jane) accident, went to visit her, in the hospital

Richard : Long time no see, Abigail.

Abigail : Oh hi Richard. How did you know I'm here?

Richard : I heard about the plane crash a week ago from the radio. Sorry I just meet you in this condition

Abigail : It's okay I feel better now

Richard : Glad to know that, anyway I hear you're handling a big case?

Abigail : Yup, That's why I went to St. Louis.

Richard : You must have trouble handling this case alone, especially with your current condition. I can help you if you want.

Abigail : Actually yeah, I think i need some help, do you mind to help me?

Richard : My pleasure, Abigail

Abigail, who agrees with Richard's offer, allows Richard to find out what she wants to do to solve her case. Unknown to Abigail, Richard is plotting his crimes. Talking about the Abigail case, she was tasked with finding the perpetrators of the mass murder that occurred in St.Louis. After a week, Abigail gets a hint that there is a witness related to her case. And she told Richard about the witness.

However, without Abigail knowing it, Richard killed the witness. Abigail is having a hard time to solving her case. After Abigail found out about the death of her witness, she found someone suspicious, but unfortunately, she couldn't see clearly who was the culprit. Abigail, it is speculated that these are the same perpetrators as the perpetrators of the mass murder case. She told Richard about this, Richard was also afraid that if he was found out.

Richard tells Abigail that he found out where the perpetrator's headquarters is this mass killing. Abigail, who is very enthusiastic about this case, immediately left to the headquarters spoken by Richard. Without Abigail knowing, Richard had already prepared a trap to keep Abigail in captivity, with the help of a mass murderer. Abigail and Richard headed into the base, not need a long time someone was there hit Abigail's head, she was unconscious.

Abigail woke up in a cramped room with her mouth covered with duct tape and her hands and tied feet. She screamed for help, unfortunately it didn't it worked, because her mouth was covered with duct tape and it only made her tired. Not long came Richard with the knife in his hand, he opened the duct tape in his mouth Abigail harshly.

Abigail, who was panting because her mouth had been covered with tape, finally can breathe easy. However, still in front of her there was Richard who was holding knife, as if he was going to kill Abigail.

Abigail : What are you doing Richard?!

Richard : Of course, I want to kill you, I hate you Abigail.

Abigail : Why do you want to kill me?

Richard : Because of you, taking the position I wanted when I was a detective, you snatched all Abigail!

Abigail : Do you know ? Maybe it happened because of your incompetent way of working, even you now it's like a killer, what kind of detective are you!

Richard was even more emotional, he pressed the knife to Abigail's cheek until it bled. Abigail freezing.

Richard : Hahaha why Abigail did you think I was just kidding when I said I wanted to kill you?

Abigail : You!

Richard : sshh shut up Abigail

The knife that Richard was playing in Abigail's face went down. Neck, he scraped it a little, just a little then it comes to the vital point of all living things, Heart.

Richard : What will happen if this knife stabs you in the heart Abigail?

Richard fiddling the knife there as if it were dancing. Without Richard knowing, the ropes that tied Abigail's hands are gone, with the help of a small knife that always carried with her. Abigail immediately brushed aside the knife that Richard was holding until the knife fell and then took the gun silently, Richard who was already emotional, immediately took his gun, he would kill Abigail right now.

Bang !

It was too late, Abigail pulled the trigger first. Richard also died. The bullet lodged right in Richard's head. and Abigail? After Richard died she just disappeared, without a trace left behind, either continuing her mission in a secluded place or continuing to live quietly. We don't know, nobody knows.

"Sometimes, not everything we think is good, is actually good.
Also, this happens when someone who doesn't like us, stands in front of us with bad intentions as if he is the best.

Everything is FAKE" - Abigail

FOREWORD

Praise be to God, the One God. Because of the abundance of His bounty, we were able to finish writing the short story "Terrible Chaos". In the preparation of the "TERIBLE CHAOS" the author has tried his best to match the author's ability for completion of the short story. But as a human being, writers do not escape errors or errors in either writing or grammar itself. Thanks to M.s Maulidia for her guidance on finishing this short story.

So with humility, the writer can only express his gratitude to all parties involved in the settlement process.

Many hope that this work can be useful and easy to understand for writers especially as well as readers in general.

The Writer's

The weather was pretty good that day, as she was in the mood. Berline got her semester off because that's why Berline would went to see her father, who is in London. Now that Berline is at the airport, made many people pass by carried luggage. Berline rushed into the plane when the flight hours had been announced. Whether it was careless Berline or anything, when she wanted to enter the aircraft, accidentally she ran over a young man who was dressed very neatly, glared his eyes sharp, somehow his sense of suspicion.

Berline sat in the chair she had reserved. From behind the window, she saw the scorching weather. Flight attendants repeatedly gave directions to passengers. They were asked to fasten their seat belt. This plane would took offed soon. At first, the atmosphere was relatively safe. Many families and teenagers went on vacation in London. But the atmosphere on the plane was quite strange when a young man was fought with a middle-aged man. Berline realized that the guy accidentally got hit by her at the airport. The middle-aged man's name is Alan. Mr. Alan said something strange. He said the young man, carried the virus and about to spread it, even heard that he was a fugitive.

Mr. Alan: "Did you carry the virus?"

Arthur: "No."

Mr. Alan: "I saw you brought out something strange."

Arthur: "Why are you so curious?"

Flight attendants: "Excuse me. Is there a problem?"

Mr. Alan: "I heard he's carrying the virus?"

Arthur: "I told you I didn't carry the virus."

Flight attendants: "Can I see your ID?" the flight attendant told Arthur. Arthur issues his identification card and gives it to the flight attendant.

Flight attendants: "He's a scientist, sir."

Arthur: "Right, I'm a scientist transferred to London, so what's your problem with accusing me of taking out stuff you think is weird?"

Heard that said, Mr. Alan didn't believe it, but he couldn't do much because there was no evidence. Berline, who witnessed it was curious. Is it true that the young man Arthur was carried the virus, or was Mr. Alan's suspicion alone?

The plane is en route to London. The passengers are did their own thing. Berline chose to go to bed because it was late. However, one of the male passengers felt dizzy and also shivered, soon his nose was bled followed by very terrible convulsions.

Other passengers who saw it were shocked and also panicked. The stewardess came to check her condition when the man's passenger had no convulsions. The flight attendant said that the man was already lifeless. The whole plane was shocked at the unexpected. Mr. Alan then punched Arthur, who standed not far from him.

Mr. Alan: "What caused the man to die was you?!"

Arthur: "What did you mean? I didn't anything."

Mr. Alan: "Tell me that you actually brought the virus and spread it, didn't you?!"

Arthur: "Right I brought it up and spread it"

Mr. Alan, who's been unable to control his temper, hit Arthur right away. Arthur hit back at Alan's pack.

Mr. Alan: "Why are you spreading it?!"

Aarthur: "You didn't need to know"

After said that Arthur ran into people on the plane. Arthur ran over the seats. But in the end he was caught by Alan's pack. The quarrel continued. Mr. Alan and Arthur are constantly punched each other. Then some flight attendants and co-pilots came to divorce them both. The passengers on the plane were shocked to see the incident. They were all terrified and angered. Afraid that they'd be infected and angered at Arthur why he was carried and spreaded the virus.

Arthur is bound and took for interrogation by co-pilots and flight attendants. The co-pilot questions Arthur with the condition of Arthur's face bled from his fought with Mr. Alan.

"Can you tell us why you're doing this?"

Arthur: "Did what?"

co-pilot: "I ask you one more time, why are you doing this? Who told you to?"

Arthur: "No one told me to."

"Did you want anything?"

Arthur: "If you were, would you give it to him?"

Arthur: "Listen, I just want people on this plane to die and this plane to free-fall."

All passengers included Berline were in shock at Arthur's words. He's crazy! That's crazy. The passengers are still tried to calm down, as is Berline. But the crazy thing happened again, not long after that some guy coughed up and his nose was bled out. It's because Arthur's virus has spread widely, those infected would had a seizure and ended up lifeless just like the man before.

Passenger 1: "How's this?"

Passengers 2: "What should we do?"

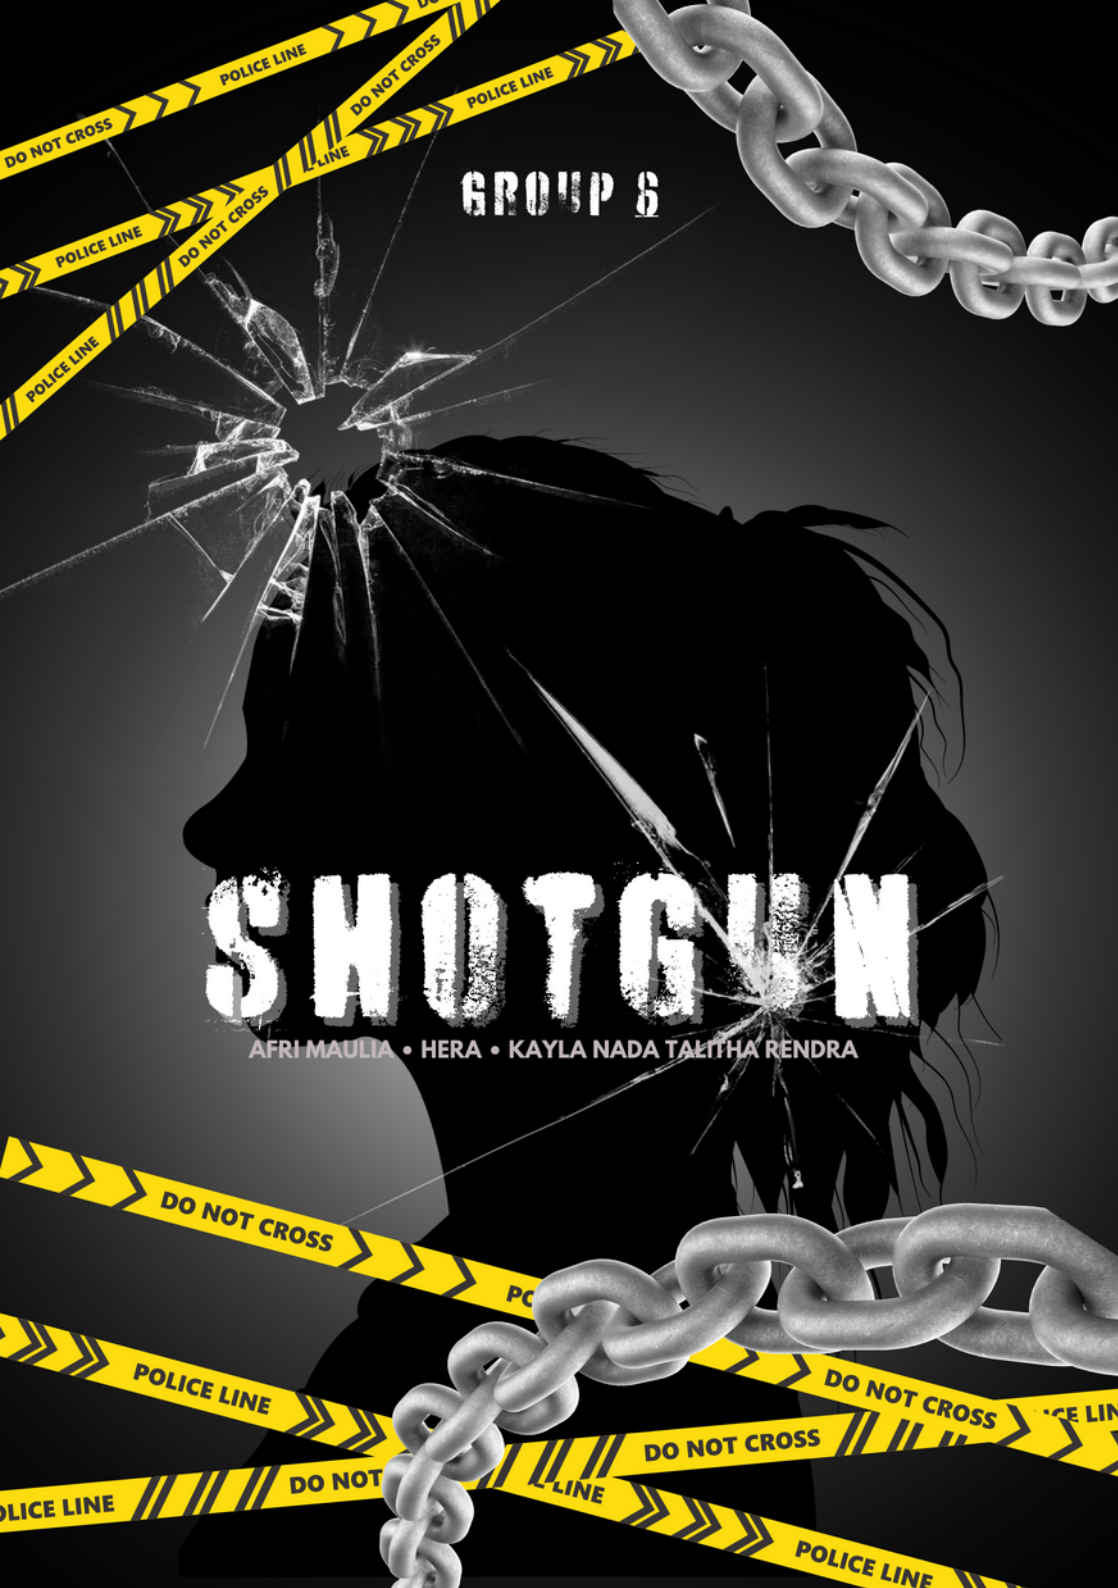

Berline: "Are we going to get infected too? Am I going to get infected by a virus?"

All the passengers on the plane are freaked out. The situation is very chaotic. Flight attendants urge all passengers not to panic. The virus has spread, and almost all passengers and flight attendants had been infected. It did not long before the plane went free because the pilot was also infected with the virus. Everyone's screamed in fear. The plane finally wholly plunged into the ocean.

The police and SAR Team knew about the incident because someone reported immediately searched for the victim who fell into the sea. Some of the survivors suffered severe physical injured, and they survived without being infected by covered their noses with masks or cloth. And a few more died. Arthur died when he was interrogated for being infected, too.

After the incident, the victim was evacuated. Berline was rushed to the hospital. Luckily Berline did not infect. The hospital has its antiviral drugs and treats the infected. After an examination, the hospital said that Berline had forgotten her memory. She was cared for by a nurse named Nana for an extended period. Because Nana didn't know Berline's real name, she called her Jane.

As time passed, it didn't feel like three years of consultation with a psychiatrist. Finally, Berline was able to recall what had happened. It traumatized her; she's hard to use air transport anymore. Berline is still in the process of physical recovery.

Three weeks passed. Jane's condition is got better. This morning, Jane woke up. The doctor already did a check-up on her. The doctor said it was a miracle that she did not have a severe condition. Her bad condition is only her leg. Her leg still felt very weak, and hurt to moved. She needed therapy to made her leg normal again.

"Hello, can you hear my voice?" Asked Jenny. Jane only looked at her.

"Is there anything hurt and uncomfortable?" Asked Jenny. Jane did not answer her question, and she was tried to moved her body. "No, you can't move. Your leg stilled felt weak and hurt. It will be hurt if you're pushed yourself," Jane sighed and nodded.

"Let me introduce myself. My name is Jenny. I've been your nurse since three weeks ago. Im here to help you if you need something. If you need help, please tell me," Said Jenny.

"What is happening?" Asked Jane. She tried to remember everything.

"You have a plane crash. You're in a coma for three weeks. We named you Jane. It's a beautiful name, isn't it?" Jane nodded. She slowed remembered what is happened to her.

"The hospital already find your identity. Your real name are Rose, right? It's more beautiful than the name we give. Can I call you Rose now?"

"No. Just use Jane. I like this name," Jenny is confused, but she just nodded at her.

"Okay. Take a rest. Remember, don't move your body. If you need something, please push the bell button beside your bed," Jane nodded. Jenny left the room.

Night has came. Jenny came to Jane's room again. It was time for dinner. Jenny brought a food tray. Jane did not sleep yet.

"Good evening, Jane."

"Let's eat dinner. I will help you to eat it," Jenny sat beside Jane's bed. When she was tried to gave Jane the porridge, Jane did not want to eat it.

"Why? Is there anything wrong?"

"Jenny, is anyone looking for me and asking about my condition?" Ask Jane.

Jenny shook her head, "No. We already find your identity and the family member you have. But the family member we find is only your dad, who already died. No one contacting the hospital to ask about you or your condition."

Jane seemed super relieved. Jenny is confused again, but she tried to act ordinary and smiled.

"Now, let's eat your food. I was-"

"Please put the food first. I will eat later. I.. really need your help," Jenny put the food on the desk.

"What do you need?" Jane held Jenny's hand tightened.

"Please, I need your help."

"Can you find me a job or a place to lived? And can you helped me to changed my identity?"

Jenny was surprised by Jane's request.

"I'm sorry, I can help you with anything, but that's impossible. I did not think I can help you with that. I'm sorry," Jane's eyes was teary. Jenny sighed.

"Please, I needed your help. This is the only chance I have. I didn't knew what to do if you didn't accepted my request."

After thought for a long time, Jenny had already decided what to do.

"Okay, I will accept your request," Jane smiled. "But why do you have to do that?"

"It's a long story..."

"Can you tell me what happened?" Jenny patted her head, and Jane nodded.

"A person looking for me, and his name are Murray. He have a father, and his father's name are Jeffrey. Jeffrey try to kill my dad with a gun. He try to kill my dad because Jeffrey are jealous of him. My dad always get promoted and noticed by their CEO, while Jeffrey did not. He think that its not fair because he work hard too. They had a big fight. They were bleed so much. When Jeffrey's gun fall, my dad caught the gun. But when Jeffrey wanted to get his gun from my dad's hand, he accidentally pulled the trigger and shot himself."

"The police arrested my father. He have been interviewed so many times. After his 4th interview, finally, the police find out that he are innocent. But the police still want to do more interview. One day, before his 5th interview with the police, my father was depressed. He started didn't eat or drink anything, only sleep for a few hours, and being fully stressed. And then, he die due to depression. Murray are so mad. He was trying to give the revenge for my dad. But because my dad died, he got his revenge on me." "I'm on the plane then because I want to run away from him—so often he know where I hid. I fight with him once, too. I learn taekwondo to fight him a little. But at that time, some security caught us and separated us." "And maybe the hospital can't find another family member besides my dad because I'm adopted. My dad is an only child. He have no siblings. His parents already died a long time ago. As far as I know, he had a wife before, but they divorced before Dad adopted me. Dad adopted me because he doesn't want to feel lonely. I only had my dad, and my dad only had me. It's just the two of us." "I'm sorry, Jane. I know it's hard for you.." Jenny held Jane's hand. "I'm a little bit okay now. Thank you so much for accepting my request. Thank you, Jenny."

2 Years Later

Jane had completely recovered. Her therapy had been completed a long time ago, and now she can walk normal again. Jenny had helped her changed her identity. Now she also lived at Jenny's house. Jenny's house was far from the hospital. It was in another city. She worked as a restaurant waiter, and Jenny is stilled a nurse at the hospital.

She cut her hair and dyed her hair with a different color. She also went back to learned taekwondo because she knew that one day Murray would found her again. She already prepared to fought with him.

After worked, Jane always walked to Jenny's house, even when she went to work. It's healthy, and the restaurant is neared Jenny's house.

But these days, Jane always felt that someone followed her when she got home. She tried to ignored it and thought she might be too tired from worked.

"Bye, Ruby! See you tomorrow," Jane waved to her co-worker, Ruby. She locked the restaurant door and went back home.

She's got nervous and suddenly felt that someone is followed her again. She calmed herself and looked to the back. But, there's no one in the back. She felt very relieved. When she looked back to the front, a man was in front of her. He's wore a mask and a cap.

Jane walked back, "Who are you?" Asked Jane.

The man laughed hard, "Someone who is looking for you."

"Murray?" "Right answer. Long time no see, Rosie," He smiled. Jane became increasingly nervous. Her breath is uncontrolled. "Wow, you have change so much. It's been two years. You have a considerable effort to make me not finding you anymore. But you fail again. Poor Rosie," Murray was laughed hard. "Murray, Stop following me!" Murray smiled widened. "I'm not following you, Rosie. I just accidentally find you. I have a vacation in this city, but suddenly I find you here. The universe dont separate us, right?" Jane looked furious, and Murray smirked.

"I know my dad is died because of your dad. Your dad is a killer, Rose!" Jane laughed, "Are you remember after my dad's 4th interview? Police already say that my father was innocent. The CCTV even recording your father bring the gun!"

Murray kicked Jane's leg, and Jane fell. "I don't care. Your father is still a killer. Just wa-" Jane pulled Murray's hair and punched his face. But it's not easy. Murray is too strengthen, and he did not failed that quicked. He tried to hit Jane's stomach, but he missed it.

Jane smiled, "Oh, it's gonna be fun," Jane punched his face again. Murray took Jane's hand and span it, but Jane pushed her elbow to his chest.

Murray is got more annoyed. She kicked Jane back. Jane fell, but she fasted stood up again.

"It was not going to be easy, Murray. I dont want to seebyou anymore," Jane walked back, but suddenly a cloth choked her neck.

"You're gonna die, Rose," Jane hit Murray's hand, but he was too strengthen. He locked her neck with his hand.

"N...no. I'm.. not going to..die," Murray smiled. He tightened the cloth more, and Jane's face was got blue.

BUGH!

Someone suddenly hit Murray's head with a wood. Murray fell and held his head.

Jane tried to control her breath. She was surprised when she saw Jenny.

"Jenny? What are you doing here?!" Jane hugged Jenny.

"I just got back from the hospital. But suddenly I hear loud noise. When I saw you, I was shock and feel scared. But luckily, I find this wood."

Murray stood up again, but he did not had the energy to beat them. His head stilled felt dizzy.

"You, what did you do!" Jenny stood in front of Murray, who was stilled held his head. Murray pushed Jenny, "This is none of your business!" Murray shouted.

"Come on! She's innocent! Can you come to your senses?"

How can I? I've been hurt for a long time. Because of my father's death, my mother never smile again. I felt lonely too. How can I not be hurt?" Murray's breathed became heavied.

"How about my father? He become depressed and traumatized. He die and leave me alone too!

Can you imagine my life at that time?" Jane was frustrated. She cried. "Can we stop all of this? Im tired. I'm sorry for what happening in your life. Please, Murray, leave me alone," Jane cried, and Jenny rubbed Jane's shoulder, tried to calmed her down.

"You're not the only one who feels hurt! Giving Jane revenge dont bring back your father. You better stop everything." Murray, who heard that became aware. He felt very guilty. Jenny is right. Gave Jane revenge did not brought back his father either. Jane did not even do anything. He stared Jane. "Murray, I know it's hadd for you. We were both close to our dad. But... it's time to let it go. No one is guilty here, neither I or you. We dong know anything. I hope you understand," Jane rubbed Murray's shoulder. Murray sighed,

"Okay, I'll end this," said Murray. His eyes were getting teary. Finally, he left both of them. He decided not to thought about what had happened to his dad and tried to forgot everything. Jane was finally relieved. Her whole life is now at peace. She did not needed to be anymore. After that incident, Murray never approached her again. Jane was back to focused on worked. She saved her money to returned to her hometown and didn't bothered Jenny. Jenny didn't felt annoyed. She was happy to helped Jane. But Jane insisted, and she decided to made a new life. A quiet, safed, and comforted life.

IMPRESSIONS AND MESSAGES

We, X-5 students, feel grateful to have finished our book. Making our book is not easy, we need a lot of time and effort to make it. We have gone through many processes. Thanks to Ms. Maulidia Rahmi, S.Pd., M.Hum. our English teacher who has helped us. Thank you to the readers who have read our book, hopefully in the future, we can make better and more satisfying stories for the readers.
